

Rental Regulations

- 1) Upon arrival, group leader or leaders must check-in with a member of the camp management staff. Check-in takes place on the deck of the Oasis (snack bar) in the main camp area.
- 2) The sponsoring group agrees to provide Camp Nurse, who is certified with at least First Aid and bring his or her own supplies and agrees to transport sick or injured campers to and from doctor's office or hospital.
- 3) One adult sponsor must accompany every eight youth for those 8th grade and under and one to every ten for those in high school. If mixed genders are present, both male and female sponsors are required.
- 4) At least one adult sponsor from sponsoring organization must remain on the grounds until all youth have left.
- 5) All participants in the sponsoring group's rental time agree to abide by these camp policies and all verbal, written, and sign marked rules. Group leaders will have this information covered during the check-in process. The group leader is responsible for the conduct of all persons involved in the rental activity.
- 6) Loss or theft of personal belongings is not the responsibility of the camp.
- 7) Use of kitchen is denied to all groups. If meals are requested they will be prepared by camp staff. Times for meals will be as follows: Breakfast 8:00am; Lunch 12:30PM; Dinner 5:30PM (Other times must be arranged with camp manager in advance).
- 8) If group is staying overnight, you must bring your own bedding and toiletries.
- 9) Campfires are only allowed in the designated area. Firewood is provided by the camp. If groups wish to have a campfire please let camp management know prior to arriving or during the check-in process so that this can be arranged.
- 10) Use of alcohol, tobacco, illegal drugs, weapons, cursing, and gambling are prohibited at all times anywhere on the grounds.
- 11) No pets are allowed on campgrounds.
- 12) No furniture or beds shall be moved unless authorized by camp manager.
- 13) Loud music or noise is prohibited after midnight in consideration of camp staff.
- 14) Any injury of any consequence must be reported immediately to the group leader who should report to the camp manager before leaving the grounds, for insurance reasons. In addition it is the sole responsibility of the renting group to obtain permission to make decisions involving medical care for each member of its group. While the staff of Golden Valley Camp will provide information about contacting medical services and where in the area medical services can be obtained. It is the sole responsibility of the renting group to make decisions about when and how to obtain medical care for its participants.
- 15) Golden Valley Camp will not be responsible for the collection or administration of any medications whether over the counter or prescription. It is the responsibility of the rental group to obtain permission to prescribe and administer over the counter medication as well as to collect and administer any prescription medications to minors.
- 16) The camp is equipped with a small spring feed pond that is there for the enjoyment of camp participants. Use of the pond will be pursuant to the following regulations. 1) Swimming is at the sole risk of the participant. A lifeguard will not be provided by the camp. If groups feel that a lifeguard is needed it will be their responsibility to provide one. 2) Use of the pond by anyone without supervision of a responsible group leader is prohibited. 3) Use of the pond is pursuant to all posted sign regulations as well as verbal and written rules given to group leaders during the check-in process. 4) Use of the pond will take place only during designated hours. The pond when available (pond is seasonal please contact camp management to see if pond will be available for your stay) is open from 9 a.m. until 7 p.m.

17) Use of camp recreational activities such as but not limited to: obstacle course, Frisbee golf, basketball courts, meadow playing field, tether ball, table tennis, volleyball, baseball, tennis, and hiking trails is to be done at the sole responsibility of the sponsoring group under the supervision of group leaders. The camp will provide rules, regulations, maps and directions for participating in these activities. The camp does not provide supervision or a responsible party to oversee these events. It is the sole responsibility of group leaders to make sure that participation of these activities follows camp rules, regulations, and directions. Failure to comply with these things will be at the sole risk of the participating group.

18) The participating group will contact the camp with a final number of campers no fewer than 10 days prior to date of arrival. At this time the group will also provide the camp with a list of each person who will be staying on the camp property. It is also the responsibility of the participating group to ensure that each person who will be on camp property has a completed and signed Waiver of Liability, this form will be provided to you by the camp and must be on file with the camp upon arrival. Subtractions from final numbers will not be allowed after this time and if you need to add more campers the group must contact camp management to ensure that the camp is able to accommodate the addition.

19) Each rental group must provide Golden Valley Camp with a Certificate of Liability Insurance naming Golden Valley Camp, Inc as additionally insured for the dates that group will be on camp property. This form will be due 10 days prior to camp dates.

20) Sponsoring church or group will be held financially responsible for any and all damages to the camp facilities and ground caused by a participant of its group.

21) CLEAN UP: Rental group is responsible for their own cleanup. Trash on the grounds and in the buildings should be picked up and facilities straightened to the condition that they were found in. Camp staff will be available for assistance.

22) Rental bill will be figured and full payment is expected upon arrival. Damage assessment will be billed later.

Cancelation Policy:

The Sponsoring Group should cancel as soon as they know, so that the dates could be used by others. If canceling it is the responsibility of the of the group leader to inform camp management no fewer than 14 days prior to arrival in writing and the deposit will be forfeited. If cancelation is not made 21 days prior to arrival the group may still cancel but they will be responsible for paying for the minimum number of campers, 20, due to the camp being unable to use those dates for another group.